BULLETIN | MAY 2010

5.1.10 | Show tomorrow!

As if anyone needed reminding, the first English / Western show of the season gets underway starting PROMPTLY at 8:30 am tomorrow morning (Sunday, May 2). Gates will open at 7:30, and the coffee pot will be purring! Download your entry form tonight and fill it out in the comfort of your home from [www.deltaridingclub.com]. For those in passenger cars, please park on the gravel on the west side of the site; the grass parking area is reserved for trailers. Please follow the direction of parking attendants and help us make the most of our parking area!

Be ready!

I can't imagine that ANYone has lost more sleep this past week than yours truly over the weather forecast, and now - oh yay - it says light rain will start in the afternoon; they're promising me cloudy with sunny breaks in the morning! With that in mind, we will start the show promptly at 8:30 and be loading classes so things will move along as quickly and seamlessly as possible (and hopefully ahead of the raindrops!). Please be sure to listen to the announcements and be ready for your class when it is called!

Bring your moola!

Director Julie Crouch and her mom, Kristin, have put together a few REALLY terrific silent auction baskets, so bring some extra cash (or your cheque book)! I know you will be impressed!

Thank you! Thank you!

We would like to welcome back G & H Horse Transport as a platinum sponsor this year! Glen was at the clubhouse last night; we are working with him for some exciting draws for horse transport services over the next little while. Stay tuned for details.

Thank you to ALLLL our 2010 Delta Riding Club sponsors:

Help wanted!

Thank you to everyone who has already offered to help tomorrow! It's our best turnout ever - but we still have some key positions that will need filling. Please let the entry office know if you're available to pitch in tomorrow, even for short shifts on the out gate, or to hand out ribbons, or be a runner! We would really appreciate it!

Have questions? Need directions? A weather report? Call 604.328-3814.

See you tomorrow bright and shiny!

5.5.10 | English/Western show a resounding success!

Oh my goodness! If you weren't at DRC on Sunday, you missed a truly MEMORABLE show! It was awesome!! We had sixty ONE exhibitors (every darn one of them on their BEST behaviour -- thank you!), a wonderful crew of volunteers (with many new faces among them - THANK YOU!) and a judge (Rick Pyke) who knew how to get the job done. If only Mother Nature had been just a little more co-operative in the afternoon, it would have been an absolutely PERFECT day!

We had many HUGE classes - how about that 15 horse English halter class, eh? - and some excellent competition! Basic Seat Open and Show Hack EACH had 17 riders! Congratulations to our high point winners:

WALK/TROT

Lauren Proudlove on Fall 'en Rain
r. June Allen on Lucy

JUNIOR ENGLISH

Sam Mackie on Johnson's Yukon Georgie
r. Caitlyn Hoolsema on Xanadus Excalibur

INTERMEDIATE ENGLISH

Devon Smith on SW Roxy Barlink
r. Taylor Dhaliwal on Timber-Melody

SENIOR ENGLISH

Diana Mark on Eppie's Girl
r. Kirsten Robinson on Hylee Classical QT

WESTERN

Keya Milaire on Kahlua Cream
r. Devon Smith on SW Roxy Barlink

We just barely managed to get thru the Hunter division before the rain started to - ahem -- pelt! But I think everyone collectively kicked it into high gear to help us get through those classes as seamlessly as possible by that point - and I can't tell you how much we all appreciated your efforts and GOOD WILL! The die-hard Western riders took the brunt of the weather, spirits in tact, and we were done shortly after four! And we are pleased to report that Madison Tani, the youngster who had the spill in the warm-up arena and spent some time in our entry office under the care of our first aid attendant Cindy Mackay, is fine - just a little bruised from her encounter with the jump standard on the way off! Madi reminded her mom, Lydia, that it wasn't the first or likely the last time she will be making an unscheduled departure! All things considered, it was an excellent day!

BULLETINS | MAY 2010

Cosmic crew!

We especially want to thank all our CREW on Sunday! For once - and I can't tell you how excited we were about this -- we had all the bases covered, including the especially challenging positions of out gate and runner. (Until you run a show like this, you cannot appreciate how truly IMPORTANT these jobs are!) As is now tradition, we drew names from our morning crew and afternoon for our volunteer awards. Congratulations to Sheila Forsythe and YOURS TRULY, who will be spending some time at Timmy's in the not-too-distant future! At the risk of overlooking someone, thank you to:

- Cindy MacKay and Francie Shuttleworth in the entry office - they ROCKED!
- DRC prez Bruce "Fuzz" Walker, our resident Ring Steward Extraordinaire and GROUNDS keeper (It was mused that perhaps Bruce had spent SO much time grooming the grounds last week in preparation for the show that he hadn't been home long enough to - ahem - SHAVE!)
- To Sheila Forsythe who took the "stage" as our announcer and
- Julie Miller who took over for her in the afternoon and to
- Marg Brodie - our chief cook and bottle washer
- Lydia Mah, Marg's NEW right hand in the concession all morning - THANK YOU!!
- Lance Kiernan, on loan from Rhainne as our "runner"
- STEPHANIE MARK - OMG girl, YOU rock! (She whipped!)
- Alana Brown who took over for Steph for the western, such as it was
- McKenna and Cassidy Mintzler - Julie's right and left hands, who helped in the concession and wherever needed - as they always do!
- DON MACKAY - who did an AMAZING job making sure we made the most of our parking area - we actually had room to spare!!
- And Todd whose-last-name-I've-forgotten (it's not personal; brain leaks ...) who handled the lonely out gate handing out ribbons with
- Diane Moon - THANK YOU BOTH -- and then to
- Rhainne Kiernan, who took over about the time the rain started ... (Oh that's funny - I just saw the irony in that now!!)

I have to tell you there is an incredible amount of work that goes on "behind the scenes" before these shows and this year, with the clubhouse renos also on our plate, the time commitment has been through the roof. It's easy to get a little resentful that this "volunteer" job is taking on full-time proportions, but - boy oh boy - when you get an exhibitor AND volunteer turnout like we did on Sunday, it makes EVERY MINUTE INVESTED absolutely worthwhile!! On behalf of the show committee and your board of directors, THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU for giving US such a great day! We are STILL basking in the afterglow - and it feels WUNDERBAR!

Silent Auction spurs competition of a different sort

Okay. It probably comes as NO surprise that I outbid EVERYone on the wine basket. (At least I live up to my reputation!). Congratulations to Wendy Lawrence who won the Horse Basket, and to Stu at Loranda Farms who outbid our Francie for the Garden Basket! And a great BIG thank you to Julie and Kirstin Crouch for assembling the goodies and making them look all so - mmmm --delicious!

Wish Ride on Saturday

HEY! HEY! HEY! I just checked the weather forecast for this Saturday, May 8 and obviously SOMEone has had words with the powers-that-be because it says SUN! SUN! SUN! (Last night, it said "not so much"!) And that's great news for the 3rd annual DELTA WISH RIDE at Deas Island Park!!

Registration for the ride starts at 9 am and last I heard, Tim Hortons will be there with coffee and timbits! The ride starts at 10 am and winds up with a BBQ starting around 11 til ???

Tara and Marilyn Pay of Four Seasons Equestrian put a lot of effort in organizing this ride where pledges received go to the CHILDREN'S WISH FOUNDATION in their efforts to brighten the lives of children with life-threatening illnesses. This year, they will have gifts for everyone with a pledge form, whether they are able to participate in the ride or not, and there will be food and friendship for all!

And how about this? If you're unable to make the ride on Saturday morning, but want to make a pledge to this awesome cause, email me and I'll sign you up on a pledge form in Delta Riding Club's name! Need a little more incentive? All pledges over $25 will receive a tax receipt from the Children's Wish Foundation. Email me! cathyglover@telus.net!

Wouldn't it be amazing if everyone who rode last Sunday showed up at Deas Island on Saturday?!?! That would be awesome! I'll be there - I can't wait! (I haven't ridden in a month!!)

And thank you!

We'd like to welcome our newest platinum sponsors for this year: FOUR SEASONS EQUESTRIAN FACILITY. That's the home turf of Marilyn and Tara Pay, our Wish Ride co-ordinators, on 62nd Street, just south of Ladner Trunk! We have a revised show program ready to go up on the website acknowledging ALL our 2010 platinum sponsors! Thank you to each and every one of them for their part in making this such a successful year for DRC!

Hunter/Jumper show coming up

The first Hunter/Jumper show of the season is scheduled for just over a week away, on SUNDAY, MAY 16. I heard from judge Kindry Dunbar yesterday and she is REALLY looking forward to coming out to DRC again! She's even bringing a junior judge! I already have four stalls reserved, and we're really looking forward to a good turnout and the long-term forecast! Let me know if you've dropped your entries off in advance (at Roddicks or Dog & Pony). The show starts at 8:30 am, and if you haven't already noticed, there are NO warm-up rounds this year (although jumps will be set up in the warm-up ring!).

Clothes swap this weekend

The first Quarter Horse circuit of the season is at Thunderbird this weekend (starting on Friday), and Barbara Binns has asked me to pass along a couple of opportunities from LMQHA to our members! They are offering a "Show Clothes Swap" for the duration of the circuit (flyer attached) and - to make your visit to T'bird really worthwhile - they are offering a good slate of open classes (APHA PAC approved). Check the website for details [<http://bcqha.com/lmqha/documents/LMQHA%20May%20Spring%20Circuit%202010%20Show%20Program.pdf>].

Meeting next week

BULLETINS | MAY 2010

The weeks are flying by. The next monthly meeting of the Delta Riding Club is ONLY a week away (and I still haven't done the minutes from the last one). Everyone is invited to attend. It's on Wednesday, May 12, in the clubhouse, starting at 7.

PS: With the forecast for the weekend looking a little brighter, there is a chance we will host an OPEN HACK on Sunday, May 9 (it being Mother's Day and all ...). I'll confirm a time in a subsequent bulletin, but you could let me know if you're interested in coming down for a ride!

SEE YOU AT THE WISH RIDE ON SATURDAY!

5.8.10 | Good sunny afternoon!

I just had a phone call from our good friend Barbara Binns. (Remember Barbara and Wayne Chappell, who used to show at DRC a few years back?). Barbara is out at the Quarter Horse show at Thunderbird this weekend, and says her "Show Clothes Swap" (poster attached) has some most EXCELLENT deals - really good stuff for sale really cheap and thought that might be something our DRC members would REALLY like to know! We're heading out the door now!

Barb says she'll be there til about 6 tonight, and will open again at 8 am tomorrow morning, and be there only til about noon! If you're looking for excellent buys on good quality show clothing, pitter patter your way out to Langley this afternoon! (You can check out the show at the same time - class schedule is at bcqha.com, then click on lmqha.com!)

5.11.10 | DRC meeting tomorrow

The monthly directors meeting (where EVERYone is welcome!) will start at 6:30 tomorrow evening, Wednesday, May 12, so we can end early, at 8 pm, to set up the jumps for the Hunter/Jumper show on Sunday. All worker-bees GREATLY appreciated. We won't hold it against you if you take a miss on the meeting but show up at 8 for the grunt work!! :

Hunter/Jumper show this Sunday

And ... as previously noted, our first Hunter/Jumper show of the season kicks off bright and shiny (and promptly) at 8:30 am on Sunday, May 16. ALL THE STALLS ARE BOOKED, so we're considering that a good omen for a great turnout! Kindry Dunbar is doing the judging honours. Gates will open no later than 7:30 am and the coffee pot will be purring! Please follow the instructions of our parking attendant(s).

If going over jumps isn't your thing, remember there is a flat class at the beginning of each division (five in all), so don't hesitate to come on down and make a day (or half a day) of it!! We'd love to have you join us!

And ... Last year this was not an issue, but the year before it was: if there are no cross-rail entries, we will start with the two foots at 8:30, so don't ASSUME you have wiggle room for your two foot class. This is a post-entry show, so we just don't know til show time how things will work out. If in doubt, call me (604/328-3814) the morning of the show.

Exhibitors are reminded to please please PLEASE check in with the whipper in when called, and enter the ring promptly when asked!! We were SO impressed by your promptness at the May 2 show - let's hope it is a trend!!

Volunteers warmly accepted

Want to be part of a great TEAM? We would love to have you come down and volunteer a few hours to help us out on show day! We don't need quite as many peeps as we do for an English/Western show but we need help all the same - in oh-so-many-ways! We especially are looking for someone(s) to look after the ribbon presentations, whip, announce, and work in the concession. And we need a couple of runners! Morning and afternoon shifts available! And ... your name automatically gets put in the draw for one of TWO volunteer prizes! Mmmmmmm - Timmy's! Please email me if you can lend a hand!! We sure appreciate it!

Wish Ride a sunny success

I'm sure that Marilyn and Tara Pay couldn't have wished for a more picture-perfect day for the 3rd annual Delta Wish Ride last Saturday. It was stunning - and Deas Island Park was at its finest! DRC member Lynne Carter put the rest of us to shame, beating her personal best with her $2060 in pledges!! Way to go, Lynne!!

In total, eight riders collected $4,878.25 for the Children's Wish Foundation - not bad, considering last year, it took 25 riders to collect $6200. Marilyn and Tara pass along their deepest appreciation to everyone who contributed to the ride this year, including no less than 34 sponsors!! There were gifts galore - and some really cool ones at that! No one came away empty handed - including Delta Riding Club, who scored a wonderful gift basket of stationery that will go to good use in the entry office!

Perhaps the highlight of the day was when Katie, from the Children's Wish Foundation, was given the opportunity to ride a horse by Wayne Owen. Katie had never even touched a horse before, let alone ride one, so you can imagine what a thrill that must have been for her! "She was thrilled," writes Marilyn, "and I had some friends come out with their kids and they got rides and now they want lessons." Thanks, Wayne!

PS: Marilyn says it's not too late to hand in your pledges! Contact her at varietyconcepts@hotmail.com.

Going to the archives

By the way, if you have missed past bulletins (I added about a dozen new emails to our address book after the May show), you can catch up with DRC by going to the website [www.deltaridingclub.com] and clicking on Bulletins. I have to admit we haven't had time to compile them in a nice clean format for quite some time (had a few other projects on our plate - can you spell c-l-u-b-h-o-u-s-e?), but all the news is there. SOME exhibitors from the English/Western show may not be aware they are high-point winners. Find the bulletin from May 7 and all the highlights of that show are there! (It's currently on the Home page, but will be replaced by this one lickety split! Also hope to have some pics from the Wish Ride and the show up there soon, too, DEVON!!)

5.15.10 | English/Western show added for June 20

When we first did the 2010 show schedule early last winter, we knew then it was a painfully long stretch between our first EW show on May 2 to the Summer Show on August 8. But -- alas -- between conflicts with other shows and commitments, we just couldn't see a way around it at the time! Well, thankfully, times have changed!

With the crazy success of the last English/Western show (May 2) still giving us goose bumps, and an opportunity in the schedule opening up, I am VERY pleased to announce an addition to our 2010 show schedule. Mark SUNDAY, JUNE 20th on your calendar! We're gonna do it all over again!

We'll be updating the show schedule toute de suite! The June 20 show will be the same format as our May 2 and September 12 EW shows. Judge to be announced! Same great crew! Same great facility - and it will likely be the show we get to break in the new kitchen which means: BOTTOMLESS COFFEE FOR ALL DADS (it being Father's Day and all)!

BULLETINS | MAY 2010

Although not everyone on the show committee is able to be on board (which means I'm really counting on YOUR help to pull this off!), I am relieved (and excited) we've been given the green light! Three months is TOO long between shows, right!?!?

Remember to mark your calendars! More info to come!

Rain will hold off

Of course, a new show on the schedule just means more anxiety for me. I have been the Weather Networks' most avid viewer since mid-February (pre-Clinics), and the lead-up to tomorrow's Hunter/Jumper show has had its scary moments. BUT I am pleased to say it looks like it's going to be PERFECT weather for a show tomorrow. Slightly overcast. NO rain! Kindry Dunbar judges. We do have cross rail entries starting at 8:30, and Kindry will be shadowed by two other judges, here to improve on their judging skills! (How cool is that?) Patterns for exhibitors are available in the entry office. The gates open no later than 7:30. The show gets underway promptly at 8:30. If you're not showing, drop by for a coffee and Marg's famous breakie sandwich!

English class descriptions updated

With the most awesome help of Kim Rose, we have made some revisions to the English class descriptions (available soon to download from the website at www.deltaridingclub.com). Look for the version dated 5.16.2010. (Devon hasn't uploaded them yet, but she will tonight.) We've also updated our English at a Glance chart. The revisions mostly offer clarity around our hunter over fences and jumper rules, which we have really struggled with these past two years. The most significant change is that flashes, figure 8's and dropped nosebands are now permitted in Jumper (but not Hunter) classes, which is consistent with other jumper shows. (Thanks, Laura "Greenhawk" Loiacono, for bringing this to our attention!)

It's the responsibility of exhibitors to be familiar with the rules, which are available in the clubhouse. We try to catch infractions at the gate -- but it's a learning curve for all of us, so please respect any request for equipment or apparel changes! Rules are there to provide a level playing field for all competitors!

Selling or buying?

Don't forget to check out our classified section on the website! It is being updated regularly and listings are accepted for free. (Sorry, no photo ads yet!) Please email your classified, barn listing or coaching/training service to devonsmith@telus.net. If you have posted something for sale on the website and it has sold, please let Devon know so she can remove the listing!

Looking forward to a great show tomorrow!

If you have time to lend a hand, please let us know in the entry office! See you there!

5.29.10 | Percentage Day next Sunday, June 6

Well, I have been remiss in sending out a reminder about our upcoming Percentage Day, just a week away on June 6! But I did get an inquiry today, so I'm hopeful you all have your calendars duly marked! Burgi Rommel is judging this second DRC event for dressage riders - and the long-range weather forecast shows improvement by then (even if eight sleeps away!).

Deadline for entries is TOMORROW, Sunday, May 30 (although I am sure Sheila expects a few to dribble in past deadline, if this has caught you off guard!). I am leaving town on Monday and will have limited access to email and phone (uh-huh!) so it is imperative that you direct any inquiries to Percentage Day show manager Sheila Forsyth. You can call her at 604.940-9698 or email at sheila.forsyth@hotmail.com. Don't leave it to the last minute, though - Sheila will want to announce ride times by Thursday!

Variety is the spice

I have also been a bit of a slowpoke in announcing the success of our first Hunter/Jumper show of the season, back on May 16. We had an excellent turnout of riders and we were extremely honoured to have not one but TWO judges shadowing our judge-of-record Kindry Dunbar - Donna Hawkins and Bunny Garcia! We had - once again - an excellent group of volunteers with our volunteer awards going - coincidentally - to our am and pm whipper ins, Diane Moon and Diana Mark! (Didn't Paul Anka dedicate a song to them?) Funny that DRC prez Bruce Walker co-whipped the WHOLE day and was shut out when names were drawn!! (Your time will come, Bruce!)

Congratulations to our high point and reserve high point winners in five divisions (and not one repeat among them!):

WALK TROT

Caroline Benoit on Liam

(r) Alicia Harper and Just Time Travelling

2 FOOT

Carissa Yuen on Bambee (so cute)

(r) Katie Andrews on Catalina

2'3"

Jordyn Shaw on Sugar N Spice

(r) Olga Suttorp on Bambee (still cute)

2'6" Shelby Yuie on Sugar N Spice

(r) Megan Loiacono on Cedar Bay

2'9"

Stephanie Mark on Eppie's Girl

(r) Natalie Amoore on Mia Promessa

I think we've finally found our groove with the Hunter/Jumper shows. We were really pleased to be able to use the big hunter/jumper ring. Francie and I got a GREAT deal on shrubbery that will last us the balance of the season, and now that our rules are a fait accompli and we have them almost committed to memory, we're looking forward to another good show on June 27th when Carmen Kramer (my personal "calendar" girl!) will judge! Hope it's on your calendar!!

Got bucks?

We were really pleased to see some of the hunter/jumper entries using their DRC "bucks back" from last year's Summer Show and our "early bird" membership drive for 2010. If you've got "bucks back" getting dog-eared in your wallet, don't forget to use 'em!

English/Western show on June 20

And ... why not start with our new-on-the-schedule ENGLISH/WESTERN SHOW on Sunday, June 20th! NOT that you will need to buy coffee for your DAD, because coffee for DADS is FREE on June 20th (being Father's Day and all ...).

We've revised our show schedule [see it on the website at www.deltaridingclub.com] for this new addition, so be sure to check it out and start making plans to attend! We've already got our volunteer list started (thank you, Lydia!), and high points are ordered (you'll LOVE them!). Have you SEEN our reserve high point awards this year? Alicia ordered what has become much-coveted embroidered hay bags!! FIVE high points

DELTA RIDING CLUB

Hay for sale!

Well. Maybe. Someday. If the sun ever comes out again! Ahem ...

Many of you know Delta Riding Club has a small hay field between the road and the show grounds, and SHOULD we ever see a forecast for sun sun sun that will allow "Farmer Smith" (yup, there IS one!) to cut, bale and stack, we will have hay for sale.

I am assuming (yes, I KNOW what happens when you do that!) we will divvy up the hay the same way we have in past years, in that we create a list of members who are interested in buying hay, and then split the cut equally among those who are interested. If YOU are interested in buying some local first cut from DRC, let me know and we'll get that list started. Honestly, I can't remember the price last year but it was $6 or $7 bucks a bale off the wagon (reasonable, anyways), and you had to be ready to pick it up pretty much as it was baled. Want some? Email me to get yer name on the list - price to be confirmed!

Naturally, only at DRC

Hey! Here is some big NEWS: Delta Riding Club will be hosting the first annual NATURAL HORSEMANSHIP TOURNAMENT this coming JULY 11!! NH coach and DRC member Adiva Murphy and her circle of clients and friends will be organizing this BRAND NEW show AT DRC for natural horsemanship followers! Open to all who practice natural horsemanship techniques, the tournament will be a casual (read F-U-N) opportunity for you to demonstrate your skills over, under, through and around obstacle courses and in pattern work! Details to follow, but a fun day is GUARANTEED! Check out Adiva's website at [www.adivamurphy.com] or contact her directly for information at 778.881.6600 or adiva@adivamurphy.com.

Clinics-r-us

Adiva is also booked to host some "Open Format" clinics at DRC later this summer, as a result of the interest inspired by her Wild & Woolies earlier this year, part of our Spring Clinic Series. She's slotted Sunday, July 25, Saturday, August 28 and ... Saturday, September 25 for us! Two or three group sessions of two hours each are available, $40 for members. More details to come, but don't hesitate to let Adiva or I know if you want to sign up for a specific date!

And ... if YOU are interested in helping to organize or attend a clinic/workshop at DRC, let me know what your interests are! My good intentions for evening clinics in May (yes, I am aware of the date!) and June seem to have gone awry! Desperately seeking inspiration! What do YOU have in mind?

Monthly meeting

Since I am leaving town (some would argue for a much needed-if-not-short vacation), I should put you on notice that the next regular monthly meeting will be coming up on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9th! We MAY be the throes of kitchen-chaos at the clubhouse by then (oh yay!), but WHO CARES!?!? (PS: Know anyone who wants to buy a real FUNKY vintage 1950s GE electric oven - we have one for sale!!). Mark your calendar and stop by the clubhouse at 7 pm and become part of the really great team of folks who are the heart and soul of DRC! MEMBERS WELCOME!!
